A Wonderful Record.

As made up by improved and exact processes Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. It cures the backache, periodical headaches, the dragging-down distress in the pelvic region, the pain and tenderness over lower abdominal region, dries up the pelvic catarrhal drain, so disagreeable and weakening, and overcomes every form of weakness incident to the organs distinctly feminine.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, the makers of which are not afraid to print their formula on the bottle wrapper, thus taking their patrons into their full confidence. It is the only medicine for women, every ingredient of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the most eminent medical practitioners and writers of our day, recommending it for the diseases for which "Favorite Prescription" is used. It is the only put-up medicine for women, sold through druggists, which does not contain a large percentage of alcohol, so harmful in the long run, especially to delicate women. It has more genuine cures to its credit than all other medicines for women combined, having saved thousands of sufferers from the operating table and the surgeon's knife. It has restored delicate, weak women to strong and vigorous health and virility, making motherhood possible, where there was barrenness before, thereby brightening and making happy many thousands of homes by the advent of little ones to strengthen the marital bonds and add sunshine where gloom and despondency had reigned before.

Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce. He will send you good, fatherly, professional advice, in a plain, sealed envelope, absolutely free. Address him at Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets do not gripe. They effectually cleanse the system of accumulated impurities.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, by Dr. Pierce, 1008 pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address as above.

MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.

To treat Dandruff, and Falling Hair, with irritants or oils on which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.

You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the Dandruff Germ.

Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.

When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

"Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

FIVE NEGROES LYNCHED.

A mob estimated to number several thousand persons last night at 11 o'clock after several unsuccessful attempts stormed the jail at Salisbury, N. C., in which the six negroes placed on trial yesterday for the murder of Isaac Lyerly, a prominent farmer, his wife and two children, on the night of July 18 at Barber Junction, Rowan county, were confined, secured five of the accused and lynched them.

The lynchers met with determined resistence on the part of the guard of militia armed with Winchester rifles which the Sheriff had stationed in the building at the direction of Judge Long, before whom the accused were being tried, and in the successful attack, the third to be made on the jail, one man was killed. In the second assault an engineer was badly wounded.

Mayor Boyden closed all the saloons, and a determined effort was being made to give the accused a fair trial. Searchlights were thrown on the building in which the negroes were confined and no one was allowed to enter the enclosure. There was one woman defendant, who was charged with holding a light for others while they killed Lyerly, his wife and two children.

The negroes were taken to Salisbury from Charlotte Sunday night without military guard, the authorities seeming to have no fear that any violence would be done them.

The tragedy was one of the most horrible ever enacted in North Carolina. Negroes entered the Lylerly house between one and two o'clock in the morning, when all the family were asleep and killed Mr. Lyerly, 69 years old; Mrs. Lyerly, 43 years old; their son, 9 years old, and a 6-year old daughter, besides fatal wounding the 7-year-old dnughter, whose skull was crushed. The parents and son were sleeping in the front room on the first floor, there being three daughters sleeping on an upper floor. The latter were unmolested, and were awakened by smoke and flames from below, the criminals having set fire to the house. Two of the girls descended the stairs to awaken their father and mother. On reaching their room they beheld an appalling scene, their father, mother and brother being still in their beds, but dead. Their heads were crushed and their faces badly disfigured. Through courageous efforts the two elder daughters, Mary and Addie, aged 18 and 16, respectively, managed to carry the bodies from the house and extinguish the flames. The weapons used by the criminals was an axe. It was taken from the woodpile, and after the crime was thrown under the porch. There was a great deal of blood on it.

The Hot Wave.

New York was like a huge griddle yesterday. The heat was intense and hundreds of thousands suffered. Twelve deaths occurred yesterday that were directly attributable to the heat, while a number of people were prostrated. At 3 p. m. the official temperature on the top of the Weather Bureau's observatory, 300 feet above the sidewalk, indicated 93 degrees, while some thermometers on the sidewalks indicated as much as 102 degrees. At 6 o'clock yesterday evening the mercury was still up in the nineties, but a slight breeze sprang up a few hours later, which cooled the atmosphere somewhat, but not sufficient to afford much relief. It was the hottest day of the summer.

Yesterday afternoon Battery Park held the biggest crowd on record. Early in the day the wilted multitude overflowed the benches and began to pre-empt the sward.

The clang of the ambulance bell was in evidence every few minutes, and scores were taken to hospitals suffering from heat, where they obtained ice and cooling beverages, something they could not get until they were taken ill because of the abnormal price of ice. Crazed, it is supposed by the heat, Michael Maher, of Brooklyn, assaulted his wife with a knife last night and, after inflicting wounds which caused the woman's death, stabbed himself.

Another Charge Against Thaw.

The controversy as to whether Harry K. Thaw was ever sued by Ethel Thomas continued in New York yesterday, Joseph A. Shay, the lawyer who appeared for the Thomas girl, produced papers to show that the suit was started, and, in addition, he says that the summons and complaint were served on Thaw as he stepped into an automobile after leaving the Waldorf-Astoria. That was on January 6, 1902.

Mr. Shay produced the complaint. In it Ethel Thomas says that about January 3, 1902, Thaw, at 304 Fifth avenue, where he had apartments, "wrongfully and maliciously and by force of arms struck and cruelly beat the plaintiff with a whip." In the complaint Miss Thomas charged that Thaw beat her over the body with great force and violence, and as a result she suffered great shock and was sick for some time.

Lawyer Shay says the suit was for $20,000, and Thaw is said to have compromised it for $600. Lawyer Shay says that he believes that Miss Thomas died from the injuries she received, and he says that the attention of the District Attorney was called to the case at the time. Shay says Miss Thomas is dead, that he will testify against Thaw, and if necessary he will conduct the jury to where the body of Miss Thomas is buried.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, AUG. 7, 1906.

THE cost of living and tariff is the issue plainly drawn between the two great political parties. The whole tariff issue turns on whether the people of the United States will decide to continue paying high prices for all they buy and continue to add to the enormous profits of the protected trusts. There can be no dispute that the cost of living has increased 48 per cent. since the present tariff law was enacted. Every housekeeper knows this is true from personal experience, and it does not require Dun's index figures to verify this large increase in prices. It is also now acknowledged by the republican leaders that the trusts sell their products cheaper abroad than to our own people. The voters of the United States in each congressional district will have to decide, when they vote next fall, which party best represents their interests. The republicans will not revise the tariff in any particular. They point to trust high prices as an evidence of the prosperity the tariff has produced and they keep discreetly silent about the much less increase of salaries and wages The democrats are pledged to revise the tariff by greatly reducing the excessive rates that now shelter the trusts. That would result in a reduction of high trust prices, because if the trusts did not reduce prices, importations of foreign goods would come in and compete with the products of the trusts. The reduction in the cost of living would virtually be an increase of salaries and wages, because the money earned would buy more, or it would take less money to provide for the necessities of a family or person. The wise voter, who investigates the tariff issue, unless he is one of the protected class, is certain to decide that the democratic policy is best for his pocketbook.

LAST Wednesday Gen. Lee, commander of the American forces in the Philippines, telegraphed to Gen. Wood that he had 500 regular troops beside a number of scouts and constabulary now ready to begin a movement to "round up" the rebellious Pulsjanes. Yesterday's dispatches from Manila brought the following:

One hundred and fifty Pulajanes pierced the military cordon, burned the municipal buildings, killed the ex-president of the town, two former members of the constabularly and three policemen at Abuyon, Island of Leyte, twenty miles from the scene of the recent fight. Maj. Crawford and Capt. Knauber, with a lieutenant and eight constabulary men, were ambushed by Igorrotes while shooting the rapids of the Abulung river in northern Luzon on a bamboo raft. Maj. Crawford and Capt. Knauber and five men were wounded with arrows. They were unable to return the fire because the enemy were hidden on the wooded banks of the river. This outbreak is inexplicable, as hitherto the Igorrotes have been peaceable.

It might as well be understood that these Filipino outbreaks against the American soldiers will continue so long as a native is left alive on those unfortunate islands.

AS STATED yesterday the death of Daniel B. Wesson, the aged millionaire pistol manufacturer and member of the firm of Smith & Wesson, which occurred in Springfield, Mass., Saturday, is believed to have been hastened by fear of a plot. Mr. Wesson's wife died four weeks ago, and since then he has failed rapidly, not once leaving the house. Last October Mr. Wesson received several threatening "Black Hand" letters, and these worried him greatly. The letters said that unless he acceded to the demands of members of the "society" his residence, which cost him $1,000,000 to build, would be destroyed by dynamite. These letters, it is said, preyed upon his mind and hastened his death. It is the belief of many that with all life's trials poverty is one of the least. The rich often have burdens placed upon them for no other reason than because they are rich, and the case of Mr. Wesson is one in point.

GRAIN crops in the northwest are largely gathered, and Minnesota reports 22,000,000 bushels of wheat more than last year, North Dakota reports 35,000,000 more and South Dakota about one million more. Little corn is produced in North Dakota, and in Minnesota and South Dakota the corn crop is smaller than last year; but one need not worry over that, as there are plenty of other States where the corn crops will be the biggest ever raised. The staple crops will be big enough for the consuming public, and the prices are likely to be high enough to satisfy the farmers—that is, the reasonable ones.

THE Richmond City Council last night killed the proposition to establish an electric light plant to be owned and operated by the city for municipal purposes. Richmond acted wisely in this instance at least.

Mrs. Mollie Hicks, wife of John H. Hicks, died at her home in Spottsylvania county, Sunday, aged thirty years.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Aug. 7

The Census Bureau today published an interesting collection of statistics regarding the financial condition of the larger cities of the country, together with comparisons as to area and populations. The inquiry made in 1904, comprised all municipalities having more than 30,000 population, or 151 in number. It was found that New York had the largest land area, 209,218 acres. New Orleans stood second, with 125,600 acres; Chicago third, with 114,932; Philadelphia fourth, with 31,828; and Duluth fifth, with 40,556. The city having the smallest land area was Hoboken, with 825 acres. It is remarked that there is often great disproportion between the area covered by a city and the number of its inhabitants. Duluth with 62,000 inhabitants takes in more territory than St. Louis with its 642,000 Salt Lake City, with a population 6,000 less than Hoboken, includes an area thirty-five times as great. The total corporate expenditures of the 151 cities for the fiscal year 1904, were $554,440,215, of which those of New York constituted $167,060,171, or three tenths. The report states that although New York has only twice the population of Chicago, its current expenses are nearly four times as great.

The next six largest cities of the country together expend less than New York. Boston appears to be a rival to New York in the generous manner in which money is spent by the city fathers. Though about equal in size with Baltimore, the current expenses are nearly three times as great. Washington is another of the larger cities conspicuous for generous expenditures. It spends more than any one of the next eight larger cities of the country, and twice that of other cities of about the same population. During the fiscal year 1904 the total receipts of the 151 cities were $594,175,998. The receipts from municipal industries, such as gas and water works and other commercial revenues, amounted to $112,286,827. Of the municipal industries, by far the most important are the waterworks. Their value constitutes 63.8 per cent. of the aggregate in value of all municipal industry properties. Of the $8,000,000 invested in electric light works, Chicago reported about one half. Nearly all of the $31,000,000 invested in gas works was reported by Philadelphia. The aggregate value of all municipal industries reported was $790,570,726. The aggregate debt of the 151 cities at the close of the year was $1,531,462,655. The largest per capital net debt was reported by Newton, Massachusetts, $125.58; the second largest by New York, $113.25; and the third by Boston, $108.17. The tax levy per capita was largest for Boston, $30.16. Some old sources of municipal revenue reported were the following: Privileges of maintaining areaways, hitching posts, barber poles, and bay windows and store fronts projecting beyond street line; the privilege of placing advertisements on street waste paper boxes; and the exclusive right to remove dead animals.

The consul says that he has secured information from official sources to the effect that least one half of the meat furnishd the German soldiers in Southwest Africa is of American origin, that the soldiers prefer it to German meat and that it costs but one-third as much at that point. Announcement is made in the daily consular and trade reports of the government today that Switzerland has started an official inquiry concerning the consumption of American meats in the various cantons.

Gambling at Saratoga.

Saratoga, Aug. 7.—The Bridge Whist Club, a gambling house operated by Joe Ullman was raided last night. Hearing that Canfield would be permitted to have a monopoly of the gambling house, Ullman declared that if they arrested him he would lodge a protest against Canfields. He will be given a hearing Thursday morning.

The police, while they have awakened to the fact that Ullman was conducting a gambling, have apparently never heard of the existance of Canfield's place. To cap the climax and give the sports a final shock, Governor Higgins has notified the sheriff that he will be held personally responsible for the enforcement of the laws against gambling in Saratoga county.

News of the Day.

Nearly 7,000 immigrants were landed in New York yesterday being the second largest number to be debarked there in one day.

Insanity in the United States is increasing at a remarkable rate and the annual cost of maintenance of the insane in public hospitals is approximately $21,000,000, not including the income from pay patients and other sources.

Thirty-three thousand dollars for 100 days' medical attendance is the sum that Dr. Samuel Thompson Banes, of Philadelphia, asks of the estate of William L. Rainey, now dead, a millionaire cork manufacturer of that city. Through his attorney, of New York, the physician is preparing a suit for the money.

Serious charges against the Catholic University were made in Washington yesterday in the papers filed in a suit to compel the Catholic University to restore securities amounting to $876,168.96, which it is said were obtained by the university from the late Thomas E. Waggaman a short time before he was declared a bankrupt.

Albert Bicker, of Proctorville, O., went to Huntington, W. Va., yesterday morning on a search for his wife, who left home Sunday. Mrs. Bicker had just left before his arrival for Catlettsburg. Bicker, hearing of her whereabouts, followed her there, and, meeting her on a crowded street, drew a dirk from his pocket and stabbed her several times. The woman died yesterday evening. Bicker was lodged in jail. A half hour after being incarcerated he took a quantity of aconite, which had been left in his pockets, and physicians say he cannot recover. Bicker is a well-known citizen of Proctorville, and the trouble between himself and wife arose over the fact that he did not want her to go to Columbus, O, on a Sunday excursion.

Light in Teamster's Convention.

If yesterday's developments are any indications of what is to come, there will undoubtedly be some lively times in the convention of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters in Chicago before adjournment. The fourth annual convention of this organization began yesterday in a bewilderment of electioneering for the presidency, and so bitter did the feeling grow between the different factions that it was necessary to call the police to maintain order.

The contending factions are headed by President C. P. Shea, who is seeking reelection, and by Albert Young, formerly president of the organization.

Thomas Martin, leader of the New York delegation, which is opposed to Shea, became involved in an argument at the doors of the convention hall with some of Shea's followers. Angry words soon led to blows, and when the police arrived in answer to a hurry-up call Martin was lying unconscious on the floor, while one of Shea's adherents sat astride his chest beating him in the face with both fist. Several persons were arrested, but all were released later on bonds.

Wild West Show in a Storm.

A terrific wind and rain storm struck Harrisburg, Pa., late yesterday, instantly killing Charles M. Richwine, and Chic Bernandi, and slightly injuring several employees of Pawnee Bill's Wild West Show. Richwine was a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman and was struck by lightning while standing under a tree near the show grounds. Bernandi, a Japanese acrobat, who sought shelter under a tent, was struck by lightning and died instantly.

Several women in the main tent fainted from fright and were taken to houses in the vicinity of the show grounds. As the wind blew a hurricane and the rain came in blinding sheets the people on the seats began to stampede. Several were knocked down, a number fell from high seats in their efforts to get to the ground and others were badly squeezed in the crush. Just as the people got safely away the horse tent of the circus fell with a crash and one of the bronchos was caught beneath a pole and killed. The show property was more or less damaged.

Deed of a Jealous Man.

Oscar C. James, a well-known liveryman of Paeonian Springs, Loudoun county, committed suicide at his home, Waterford, on Sunday night, after an unsuccessful attempt to kill his sister-in-law, Miss Blanche Brabham. James was jealous of the attention Miss Brabham received from Thomas Myers, of that neighborhood, and he became enraged because they went to a bush meeting on Sunday. He made threats at that time. After returning to Waterford James drew his pistol and fired three shots at Miss Brabham, one of which slightly wounded her. He then turned the pistol upon himself and inflicted a fatal wound in the right temple, death resulting in a short while. Miss Brabham was the sister of James's deceased wife and had been his housekeeper for several years. James leaves one son and one daughter.

Henderson, of Alexandria county, for the nomination for Congress. The delegates-at-large were George Hoge and W. H. Silcott; their alternates, William B. King and R. Bruce Ogden. The convention elected a county committee of 30 members and indorsed unanimously the administration of President Roosevelt.

Hypnotized by Steel.

Physicians of Hustonville, Ky., are mystified over the fact that John P. Wilson, one of its most substantial citizens, drops into a hypnotic state every time he feels the touch of steel. A barber started to shave him, but the moment the razor touched his face Mr. Wilson's muscles relaxed and the barber thought he was dead. Great excitement followed, and it was not until a half hour later that Mr. Wilson awakened and explained that he had been subject to such attacks since his youth. In crossing a railroad, Mr. Wilson once accidentally touched the rail and dropped to the roadbed as if dead. Some one passing by pulled him off the track just before a train passed over the spot.

Great gullies were washed in fields of growing corn. Hail knocked off much fruit.

A Bloodless Duel.

A dispatch from Paris says that the duel between Generals Andre and De Negrier is awaited with intense interest, owing to the prominence of the principals. General de Negrier yesterday named as his seconds Generals Langlois and Duchesne, who today will arrange details with General Andre's seconds, Generals Balaman and Chevillard. There is bitter animosity between the generals, owing to the exchange of the epithet "liar." Pistols have been chosen for the encounter, which probably will take place today. General de Negrier recently wrote to a Paris newspaper correcting part of statements which General Andre, the former minister of war, had made concerning him, and asserting that General Andre lied when he asserted that he, De Negrier, had asked to be retained in active service after having reached the age limit because he had been commander-in-chief at Langeon, Indo China, which the then war minister refused to do.

Paris, Aug. 7.—The expected duel between Generals Andre and de Negrier, growing out of statements contained in M. Andre's recently published memoirs, was fought today. The meeting of the two generals was with the usual result of French duels. Two shots were fired, but without effect, and their honor was declared satisfied.

To Stay-at-Home.

A change of air and scene is very desirable, but all of us cannot have these luxuries. Luxuries they are, though there has grown up an idea that they are necessities. Let those of us who perforce stay at home console ourselves with two reflections First, that our forefathers never dreamed of shutting up and leaving their homes for weeks at a time, and yet they lived in comfort and died at a ripe old age. Second, that whether we get through the summer comfortably or not depends much more on ourselves than on our surroundings. A nervous fretful woman will let the heat wear her out quite as much at the mountains or seashore as if she had never left home. A serene habit of mind and determination to make the best of things will carry one triumphantly through the hot days and over the weary nights, even if they must be spent among bricks instead of by rolling waves or rustling trees

Results of a Bank Failure.

With a deficit in its accounts of close to $1,000,000 and with the whereabouts of two of its chief officers unknown to the authorities, the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank, one of the largest outlying banks in Chicago, was closed yesterday, as stated in the Gazette of that day, by State Bank Examiner C. C. Jones. The failure was responsible for the death of one of the depositors and led to the suicide of another man, who, a month ago, had placed the earnings of a life time in the institution. In the excitement following the announcement of the failure J. G. Visser, an officer of the Royal League, who had funds of that organization on deposit, fell dead. Henry Koepke, a grocer, on hearing that the bank had suspended payment, went to the rear of his store and shot himself. He died a few minutes later. The bank had deposits amounting to about $4,000,000 and loans and credits to about the same sum.

Irvine, aged eventy years, one of Norfolk's leading citizens, died suddenly Sunday night from acute apoplexy, having been stricken while attending St. Paul's Episcopal Church, of which he had been a vestryman for many years. ### Confession of a Murderer.

Lincoln, Me., Aug. 7.—Driven to suicide by the secret of the Mattie Hackett's strangling in Readfield, one year ago, the story which Willy Hurd, a woodsman, told his chum before his death by his own hand, is the first real clue that has come to light upon Maine's greatest murder mystery. The account of Hurd's connection with this baffling murder is told by Wallace Dolly, a fellow worker with the man, who, according to Dolly, long before his death, confessed that he had killed the Hackett girl and then swore Dolly to secrecy, with the threat of instant death should he breathe a word of it to any one. Hurd told Dolly that he was the mysterious tramp arrested the day after the murder and jailed for 15 days under the name of George Reed, being finally freed and allowed to depart. Dolly since has been a constant companion of Hurd for the past eight months, and swears that the story of Hurd's confession to him is true. He firmly believes that Hurd at least was concerned with the crime if not directly connected with the death of the pretty farmer girl. Hurd shot himself yesterday while in a frenzy from excessive drinking, and Dolly believes that Hurd took to drink in order to beat off the haunting thoughts of the crime. It was during one of his gloomy spells, while he was practically sober, that he told his story to Dolly. He told the exact manner in which the crime was committed, how he tied the rope around Mattie Hackett's tender throat, and then went away leaving her to die. Upon realizing how far he had gone in his confidence with Dolly, he threatened to kill him then and there or any time after if he ever told a word about what he had confessed. Hurd did not give any motive for the deed, nor did he go into the minute details. He said he was with other men tramping throught the woods, but that he left them. In no way did he mention any one but himself as being connected with the murder.

Affairs in Russia.

Helsingfors, Finland, Aug. 7.—The captured Finnish revolutionists who were seized during the recent uprising have been turned over to the Finnish authorities and will be tried by Finnish law and punish by imprisonment.

The shooting of the men condemned for participation in the mutiny at Svaborg continues at the fortress.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 7.—The authorities continue to arrest the men concerned in agitating the general strike. A great many of the strike leaders have been taken into custody.

The Gazette today announces that it has been informed on good authority that a change in the cabinet will occur on Thursday. The Czar's program now is, if the Gazette's information is corect, to form a reform ministry, evidently in the hope of appeasing the people and end the revolutionary struggle.

According to the Gazette's story, Prince Luoff, who was called with Count Hayden to take a position in the Stolypin cabinet, will be named as premier.

The strike situation is unchanged. All is quiet except that meetings of workmen here and there and at Moscow are being dispersed as rapidly as they are discovered. The soldiers in dispersing the workmen are using naggaikas. A few persons have been wounded owing to the use of these weapons. Work has been resumed at many of the factories.

Prize Fight in Barracks.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 7.—The officers sailors, marines and naval apprentices and others on Coasters' Harbor Island were shocked to hear that the barracks of the naval training station had been used for a ring for a prize fight last Sunday night, and that "veiled society women" were present. The correspondent was officially informed last night that one of the regular athletic entertainments took place in the gymnasium, and that the officers of the North Atlantic squadron had been invited by the commanding officer. There were rattling bouts between the naval apprentices and others. Other sports were indulged in, over 500 naval attaches of the island and the ships being present. Many of the officers of the station were on hand to greet the officers from the war ships. In the company were four ladies, wives of officers—only four—who wore no veils. One of the officers said last night: "We don't need prize fights to attract boys to enlist. We have more applications than we can consider."

The night was a hard one, especially for the poor. The latter had to stay in the city and bear it. The East Side turned out en masse camping on the streets, in the parks, on the recreation piers, and on roofs. The police gave the sufferers the utmost liberty.

Five deaths were reported early this morning, which, with the sixteen of yesterday, makes 21 persons who have died because of the heat. These reports are very incomplete, including only persons who have succumbed suddenly. The real list will run up in the hundreds, when those cases are considered where the death of people, already 111, is hastened by heat.

Two hundred and fifty cases of dead horses, dogs, and cats, were reported up to 7 o'clock today.

Boston, Aug. 7.—One death and thirty prostrations were recorded yesterday as the result of the excessive heat in this city. The temperature reached 93 1-2 degrees, in the afternoon. Lupo and his wife came here five weeks ago from Sicily. The man is thirty-three years old, and his wife was twenty. They have been married for five years and two children were born to them. The children died shortly before the couple removed to America. The young wife was a very pretty woman and attracted a great deal of attention among Italians who knew them, and this may have excited the husband.

Women and Cigarettes.

Madrid, Spain, Aug. 7.—The custom of smoking Turkish cigarettes has been generally taken up by aristocratic Spanish women, and the introduction of the habit among them is laid to Queen Victoria. When the new queen first came to Madrid, the court ladies were shocked at Victoria's use of the Turkish cigarettes. When King Alfonso heard that they did not approve of his wife's habit he sent each of the court ladies 1,000 cigarettes, asking them to test them, and see if smoking were really sinful. The result of this action has been the cause of nearly all the aristocratic women in the capital taking up smoking.

DEATH OF MR. EPPA H. CONRAD.

Eppa H. Conrad, a prominent merchant of Loudoun county, is dead, and in his death the church has lost a faithful member, the Masonic lodge a hard worker and the town of Round Hill, Va., and the county of Loudoun one of its most useful and enterprising citizens. On the morning of the 30th day of July, at his beautiful home in Round Hill, surrounded by loved ones whose constant care and tender nursing had done all that human power could do to stay the hand of the fell destroyer, all that was mortal of Eppa Conrad passed from this earth and his noble spirit returned to the God who gave it.

Mr Conrad was in the prime of life, being only 38 years of age. His illness from typhoid fever was of short duration. Truly "in the midst of life we are in death." He loved his home and it had been for him, there he was all patience, kindness, kindness and love. In the home circle the beauty and loveliness of his character brightened every face and warmed every heart. Loving friends stood close by his bed-side while his spirit was passing and heard him say "It is all right." A moment later he pointed heavenward and fell into that everlasting sleep without saying good-bye to any one, preferring to greet them all when they shall rejoin him in a better world. His death is regretted by all who knew him, the more so by those who knew him well.

Seven years ago he was married to Miss Ola Shackleford at Marshall, Va., and she and one little child survive him. The widow and the orphan mourn and their grief is the grief of the entire community, but a merciful father has given him more than he has taken away and this comfort is theirs—"He that believeth in me though he were dead, yet shall he live: Whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die."

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 5:05 a. m. and sets at 7:05 p. m. High water at 10:17 a. m. and 10:41 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section local rain and slightly cooler tonight and Wednesday; winds mostly light from south.

Death of Mr. Moore.

Mr. William A. Moore, an old, well-known and esteemed citizen, died at his home on Prince street, near Royal, this morning. The deceased was in his 80th year. Mr. Moore was born in New York State, but moved to Virginia in early life, making his residence in Fairfax county. He later became a resident of Alexandria, where he had lived for nearly half a century. For many years he was engaged in the grain and commission business in this city. About twenty years ago he was a member of the Board of Aldermen from the first ward. A short time ago he was appointed Deputy Sergeant of this city, and was later elected a Justice of the Peace from the Second ward. Mr. Moore was a Past Master of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons and was a member of Mount Vernon Royal Arch Chapter and of Old Dominion Commandery of Knights Templar. Of late years he had been Tiler for these organizations. He was also Chaplain of Alexandria Lodge, B. P. O. Elks. The deceased had during the past third of a century been an elder in the Second Presbyterian Church, and throughout life he had been an earnest and consistent Christian. He leaves a widow and several children. Mr. Moore had enjoyed good health up to a few weeks ago when he began to weaken from what was supposed to have been an ordinary indisposition. It refused to yield to treatment, however, and complications followed which soon made his condition serious, so much so that his death was seen to be inevitable.

Miss Lee at Atlantic City.

Miss Mary Custis Lee is spending some time at the Dennis, Atlantic City. The correspondent from that place to the Philadelphia Inquirer says: "Miss Lee has forsaken the romantic surroundings of her beautiful Virginia home to gain strength by the sea. Thousands of southern visitors pay reverence to the daughter of the military genius of the "Lost Cause," and the distinguished southern woman is pointed out as she enjoys frequent roller chair outings with more interest than attaches to the occasional masculine celebrity to be found here. The fact that the South contributes generously to the prosperity of the resort is evidenced nightly on the piers when in the course of every popular medleys the bands reach Dixie. The catchy air means an instant outburst of applause whenever or wherever played in the South, and visitors from Dixie feel at home in the crowds nowadays when the bands begins to play the old, familiar strains. The sentiment, always present, has been quickened because of the fact that Mary C. Lee, first in the hearts of southern people since the death of 'Winnie Davis' is in Atlantic City."

The Torrid Wave.

The sultry temperature of yesterday and last night caused general discomfort, but no fatalities resulted hereabouts. One resident was overcome by the heat but he soon revived. Washington was a veritable bake oven during most of yesterday. The mercury is said to have reached 103° in the afternoon. An experiment was made about 3 o'clock of placing the thermometer in the sun and it then registered 114, showing what temperature the horses and the pedestrians who were walking in the sun had to stand. The wide avenues and streets paved with asphalt yielded to the hot rays of the sun and yesterday the asphalt was soft and persons walking on it felt it yield under them, leaving distinct footprint in the streetbeds. The Weather Bureau holds out little prospect of relief for a day or two at least.

Gives Virginia Jurisdiction.

United States Commissioner Anson S. Taylor decided yesterday afternoon that the recent alleged mutiny on board the Colonial Beach steamer St. Johns while she was lying at Colonial Beach, occurred within the jurisdiction of the State of Virginia, and that those involved in the affair must await the action of the grand jury of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia at Richmond. The men involved in the affair were Henry Williams, James Kelson and Henry Smoot, three negro firemen, and Robert Alexander, a negro stoker. The four men were arrested August 1 and were held pending a hearing before Commissioner Taylor. They were given a preliminary trial on the charge of violating Section 5359 of the United States Revised Statutes.

Death of an Old Resident.

Captain Enoch Davis, a well-known resident of this city, died at the home of his sister, on Potomac street, between Lee and Union, at four o'clock this morning. He leaves one son. The deceased was about 65 years old. Capt. Davis was a waterman by occupation, and for many years was master of the sloop B. H. Lambert, which ran on the Potomac. He was paralyzed a few years ago, since which time his health had gradually declined. The deceased had been a cripple almost since infancy, having been unable to walk, and when a boy was pulled through the city in a small wagon drawn by a white dog. He was one of a large family which moved to Alexandria from Charles county, Md., over half a century ago.

Hurt in a Runaway.

There was a runaway accident on Duke street, between Lee and Union, about ten o'clock this morning, which resulted in the serious injury of a colored woman named Edith Sheppard and her daughter Alice. They had come to the city from Fairfax county in a carriage, and while on Duke street the horse attached to the vehicle was frightened by two dogs and ran away. The occupants were thrown out, the mother's arm broken and her daughter painfully injured. The ambulance was summoned and they were both taken to the Alexandria Hospital where they received surgical aid. The horse was stopped by a colored man before the wagon had been materially damaged.

Big Shows Coming.

Jones' enormous shows, which will exhibit in Alexandria on the 13th instant, show includes not only the best obtainable circus features but also a complete menagerie, hippodrome and Wild West frontier exhibition. Anitta Pessley in her death-defying leap the loop, the famous Lorenze troupe of eight European acrobats, the flying Cotter family, the two Arnolds, aerialists supreme; the Peasleys from the Hippodrome; the Delzaros, double revolving ladder; Brooks, Hardell and Brooks, triple bar experts, and one hundred other great feature acts are among the attractions of the shows. The coterie of funny clowns is headed by the world famous John Gagnier and Slivers Oakmont. The Wild West and frontier exhibition, which is given in conjunction with the circus performance, includes a genuine tribe of Sioux Indians and cowboys, cowgirls, scouts and Rough Riders, headed by the King of the Cowboys, Riley Starr. The menagerie contains cages of rare and wild animals from the most remote parts of the globe and the educated animal exposition includes trained elephants from the Hippodrome, trained horses, ponies, dogs and monkeys and trained wild lions, tigers, leopards and hyenas. The entire enormous shows will exhibit under one great cloud of canvas and for one price of admission and two performances will be given at 2 and 8 p. m.

Fined Fifty Dollars Each.

Rosa Moore, alias Rosa Roberts, was arrested about twelve o'clock last night by Officers Bell, Henderson and Jones charged with selling lager beer without a license. The officers were passing at the time and saw two young men in the front room drinking beer. They took them in charge as witnesses, and the case came up in the Police Court this morning, when the Moore woman asserted that she did not sell the beer, that the house was in charge of a woman named Mattie O'Berry and that the accused collected the money and gave it to the proprietress. The O'Berry woman testified to the same effect. Justice Caton fined them $50 each.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Rosa Moore, alias Roberts, and Mattie O'Berry, arrested by Officers Bell, Henderson and Jones charged with selling lager beer without a license, were fined $50 each.

George Griffin and John Mumford, arrested by Officers Henderson and Jones charged with vagrancy, were fined $5 each.

Ollie Sykes and Rose Cooper, arrested by Officers Jones and Henderson for assaulting Hazel Davis, were fined $5 each.

Enforcing the Vagrant Act.

Officers Henderson and Jones last night arrested two young men, George Griffin and John Mumford, under the vagrant act. The officers testified in the Police Court this morning that the accused spent most of their time on north Lee street, that they were taken from a house in that section and that they did not work. Justice Caton fined them $5 each, which they failed to pay and they were locked up. The two young men arrested last week under the vagrant act have been enrolled as members of the chain gang.

Striking Brakemen.

The running of freight trains on the Southern Railway was interrupted for a time yesterday by dissatisfaction among the brakemen, caused, it is said, by long hours, and an order which was regarded by the men as a hardship. According to the new regulation the flagmen are required to ride on top of cars instead of inside the cabooses, as formally. The brakemen objected to this, especially in rainy weather. The trouble was adjusted to the satisfaction of all concerned, and trains today were running as usual.

After the Dogs.

The announcement made yesterday to the effect that the police were making a movement on unlicensed dogs was read with satisfaction by many people, especially those whose business carries them to all parts of the city. At night many curs, most of them without owners, roam the streets, fight, and bark at the moon, which with the prevailing heat render sleep in some neighborhoods impossible. In the day time they scare horses and occasionally bite passersby.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mabel I. Brenner, who died at the Alexandria Hospital early last Sunday morning, will take place at 5:30 o'clock this evening from the residence of her father, Mr. G. E. Markell, on Wolfe street, near Fairfax. The services will be conducted by Rev. W. H. T. Squires, of Tennessee, and the pallbearers will be Messrs. Thomas Dyson, P. F. Murphy, George B. Kennedy, F. L. Slaymaker, Charles Tennesson and Malcon A. Brenner.

Accidents.

Mr. Carley Wood, while painting the interior of a house at the corner of Gibbon and Pitt streets, yesterday, fell through a trap door and was painfully bruised.

Mr. George Wood, while at work at the shipyard yesterday, had his head seriously cut by coming in contact with a spike which was protruding from the side of a vessel on the ways.

New Freight Depot.

The Washington-Southern Railway Company will open their new freight station at the union depot, adjoining this city on the west, on next Thursday morning, August 9, at which point all local freight will be delivered and received. The present depot in the square bounded by Cameron, Queen, Henry and Fayette streets, will be abandoned tomorrow night.

Watches Lost.

Harvey Robinson reported to the police this morning that he had lost a gold watch in a public house last night.

John Henderson later reported that he had lost a gold watch in a public house this morning.

Change of Freight Depot.

On Thursday, August 9, 1906, the local freight depot of the Washington-Southern Railway will be transferred from Cameron and Fayette streets, Alexandria, to the new building at the union depot, adjoining Alexandria on the west. The present depot will be closed on Wednesday night, August 8, after which time all local freight will be received at and delivered from the new depot. Bell telephone No. 278; Capital City No. 33.

Luna Park Attractions.

The largest Sunday night crowd of the present season was at Luna Park August 5th to welcome back to the big pleasure resort the Navassars Ladies' Band. The band is offering several features this trip, among which are Miss Louise Campbell, vocal soloist, and the "Anvil Chorus." Both are pleasing features and have made a great impression during the concerts of this week. Mr. Hans Line, former director of the Navassars, has retired from that position and his place has been taken by Mrs. Augusta Dial, a noted lady conductor. The number of the band has been increased to fifty pieces in addition to the leader and soloist. Their concerts are given each afternoon and evening. Ragtime concerts are given each Friday afternoon and evening and on Sunday a special sacred concert is offered. The Luna Park management announces for the week of August 12th the noted Ralph Johnstone, bicycle expert from the New York Hippodrome, and who has been declared the greatest performer on the moving wheel in the world. His greatest feat is that of turning backward and forward somersaults on the bicycle. It is said that he can jump a distance of twenty feet from a standing location, and portions of his act will take place far above the heads of the audience. The Park will have several large outings during the month of August, those scheduled for next week being Lansburgh & Brother's Department Store employees on August 7th; the Catholic Women's Benevolent Legion, August 9th and an outing of the Navy Yard machinists August 11th. Among the interesting announcements for the outdoor free act is the coming of Barlow's elephants, a herd of highly amusing trained beasts. It is said that the little children will be allowed to ride around the Park grounds on the back of the big elephant "Hercules." Eight new attractions have been added to the other amusements along "The Trail," making Luna Park now the greatest amusement resort west of famous Coney Island, New York.

About Those Peaches.

Saturday's supply, 9 bushels, gave out long before closing time. We had counted on selling lots of those peaches when you had found out how good they were. Tomorrow morning we'll have a bigger consignment here for you—right fresh from the orchards; the same orchards that our last week's peaches came from. The same big, sound, well-ripened, luscious kind of peaches—ideal for canning. Get busy. . . . . Going to have some Damsons too, and everything obtainable in the fruit and vegetable kingdom. . . . . .

My wife improved with first bottle and twelve bottles completed the cure." Cures the worst coughs and colds or money refunded. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' druggists. 50c and $1.00. Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college, said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains; no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope or charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 Kingstreet.

THREE FACTS

For Sick Women To Consider

FIRST.—That almost every operation in our hospitals performed upon women becomes necessary through neglect of such symptoms as backache, irregular and painful periods, displacements of the female organs, pain in the side, burning sensation in the stomach, bearing-down pains, nervousness, dizziness and sleeplessness.

SECOND.—The medicine that holds the record for the largest number of absolute cures of female ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It regulates, strengthens and cures diseases of the female organism as nothing else can.

For thirty years it has been helping women to be strong, curing backache, nervousness, kidney troubles, inflammation of the female organs, weakness and displacements, regulating the periods perfectly and overcoming their pains. It has also proved itself invaluable in preparing women for childbirth and the change of life.

THIRD.—The great volume of unsolicited and grateful testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time published by permission, give absolute evidence of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women.—Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. From symptoms given, your trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years under her direction and since her decease she has been advising sick women free of charge. Out of the vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Surely, any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

Old Time Acting.

The old time actor had peculiar and primitive views as to elocution and its uses. I remember a certain old friend of mine who, when he recited the opening speech in "Richard III." and arrived at the line, "In the deep bosom of the ocean buried," suggested the deep bosom of the ocean by sending his voice into his boots. Yet these were fine actors, to whom certain young gentlemen who never saw them constantly refer. The methods of the stage have completely changed and with them the tastes of the people. The probability is that some of the old actors of only a few years ago would excite much merriment in their delineation of tragedy. A very great tragedian of a past generation was wont in the tent scene in "Richard III," to hold a piece of soap in his mouth, so that, after the appearance of the ghosts, the lather and froth might dribble down his chin, and he employed moreover a trick sword which rattled hideously, and, what with his foam flecked face, his rolling eyes, his inarticulate groans and his rattling blade, the small boy in the gallery was scared into a frenzy of vociferous delight!—Richard Mansfield in Atlantic.

Proficient.

When western Iowa was newly settled the farmers in an isolated section banded themselves together as a school district and proceeded to choose one of their number committeeman. A log schoolhouse was erected, and soon a young woman came that way seeking a chance to teach. The committeeman was designated to ascertain her fitness.
When the time for the ordeal arrived the public official was at his wit's end. He had been examined himself often enough, but that was when he was attending district school fifty years before. The very thought of conducting an examination himself, and for a teacher at that, staggered him. He could not think of a question to ask.
The young woman sat waiting, and the old man teetered nervously on his tiptoes.
"Well, now, Miss Burden," he said cautiously at last, "kin you say the alphabet back'ards?"
Miss Burden could, and did.
"Fine!" cried the committeeman. "I'll just indorse your certificate." He wrote it thus:
"Fully profeeshunt."

A Great Stamp Forgery.

The most colossal stamp forgery on record entailed the successful swindling of collectors throughout Europe in 1889. One day the French papers announced that King Marie I. of Sedang, an island in the vicinity of China, was coming to Paris. As it happened, this self created monarch was an ex-officer of the French navy, and his appearance in Paris created considerable sensation. As soon as his majesty had been duly "advertised" sets of seven different postage stamps marked "Sedang" and bearing three half moons appeared, and so great was the demand for them that in less than a month they realized 1,000 francs each. Not until the king and his ministers had reaped fat fortunes in this manner was it discovered that the whole thing was a hoax and the stamps consequently worthless.

Some Slips of the Tongue.

Never use the word "liable" when you mean "likely." Do not say, for instance, that "he is liable to come in at any moment." "Liable" implies misfortune and means "exposed to," "subject to," "in danger of."
Why do most of us speak of "unravelling a mystery?" Any good dictionary shows that "ravel" means "to unweave." You "ravel" a mystery, therefore, when you solve it. In "Hamlet" Shakespeare says: "Make you to ravel all this matter out."
If you and your friend Smith know a man called Jones, do not speak to Smith of "our mutual friend"—meaning Jones. Jones is your common friend. If you are friendly to Smith and Smith is friendly to you, you and Smith are "mutual friends," but that is the only sense in which the term may be rightly used.
